NON-MEMBER ORDER FORM

For access On-line Pioneer Register Pioneer Register of Pioneer Families of Bathurst & District before 1920

To view information about Pioneers and their families, which may include birth date and place, marriage details, child information, arrival details in Australia and the ship, arrival in Bathurst, residence, occupation, and other relevant data, you need to purchase vouchers in blocks of 40 credits or subscribe for a specific time period. The amount of information available for each entry in the online database can vary since it is provided by contributors, along with additional information collected by members of the Bathurst Family History Group. The initial data matched that published in the 2007 Register, but it is now continuously updated with new entries, making it a live database. The 2021 database includes 5,238 Pioneers of Bathurst and the district before 1900, as well as 5,436 spouses and 21,533 children. There are over 27,000 individual names in the Pioneer Register. Contact information is available for many contributors, especially recent ones.

To view entries purchase either Pay-per-view at 20¢ per entry in blocks or subscribe for a time period.
